Proposal to streamline coursework in EdD, EdS and Superintendent licensure programs Approved by ELPS January 18, 2013

Proposal: The educational leadership program area proposes the following changes to better align the EdD, EdS and Superintendent's licensure programs.

Rationale: Under current state policy<sup>i</sup>, superintendent licensure requires candidates to complete a state approved program and possess a degree beyond the masters degree. The vast majority of IU EdD students are working professionals and a majority of these students seek licensure required for district-level positions. While students earning an EdD have a competitive advantage in the job market, many seek district level positions prior to completing the doctoral program. Commonly, students on this path complete the EdS degree, apply for licensure, secure district-level employment and later return to complete the EdD program.

As reflected in the tables below, the EdS, EdD and licensure programs were designed with substantial overlap. The proposed changes further streamline programs enabling students to earn an EdS and Superintendent license en route to the EdD.

Proposed changes:

- 1. Drop A510 and A515 from the EdS/Sup Lic requirements. (Note: As requirements of building-level licensure, most students enter with these classes.)
- 2. Add A653, A671, A672 and A754 for the EdS major. These courses are part of the current EdD program major.
- 3. Add A653 and A671 or A672 for the Sup Lic. These courses are part of the current EdD program major.
- 4. Add A638 and A640 to the major for EdD major These courses are part of the current EdS and the licensure programs.
- 5. Drop A720 from EdD major.
- 6. Move A600 from the major to the elective area.
- 7. Add H631 (or comparable elective) as the third curriculum course for EdD minor. (Note: This change was discussed and approved by Mary McMullen who serves as our curriculum minor advisor).
- 8. Add A795 as an alternative to A680: Capstone. Leave A680 on the books for the students who want EdS only. Adjust A795 as appropriate to function as a pre-dissertation/capstone course.
