Activities:

During the 2014-2015 academic year, the committee heard two grievance appeals. The first was filed by a graduate student. The committee convened to hear this case in June. The second case, filed by an undergraduate, was heard in October. In each case, a panel was formed from available members of the grievance committee, the case was heard, and a report was prepared. The reports, with recommendations, were submitted to the Dean's office. The Dean's office made final decisions and each matter was successfully brought to conclusion.

No other activities took place.
