

LANGUAGE EDUCATION MSED (ENL)

Literacy, Culture, and Language Education courses focus upon the improvement of instruction through an understanding of language and literacy processes in cultural contexts, the integration of formal and informal assessment with instruction, and the application of research knowledge to practice and internship opportunities. Course work involves experiences with children, high school and college youth, and adults.

The master's program in Language Education, is (36) credits.

Language Education MSED - (ENL Licensure)

Applicants who hold an Indiana Elementary or Secondary Education teaching license will be eligible to apply for a licensure addition in ENL. The license is added to the area/s of your existing teaching license.

ENL Requirements

1. Hold an Indiana Elementary or Secondary teaching license
2. Earned bachelor's degree from an accredited institution
3. Complete 21 credits of licensure courses in ENL
4. Complete a practicum in ENL

*Note: The practicum is coordinated by the faculty in ENL

*In addition to successfully completing the program, students seeking licensure must meet all current IDOE requirements.

Emergency Permit License Holders

Emergency Permit holders (EP), who do not have an Indiana Elementary or Secondary Education teaching license, are not eligible for a teaching license in ENL.

For more information about the program, please schedule an appointment with us. We would be happy to help you explore your options.

All applicants are required to submit their transcripts, with the degree conferral, to be reviewed for admission. Please contact the advisor (see above) for information about the application instructions and submitting the transcripts.
