Writing prompt

The Counselor and Counselor Education program at the IU School of Education—IUPUI prepares school counselors to be transformational agents fostering equity and justice, and valuing diversity. Transformational school counselors challenge barriers to educational opportunity relating to poverty, gender, (dis)ability, race, ethnicity and home language, among others. In preparation for this work, our students engage in ongoing discussions and critical analyses of school organizations, the application of counseling theories and research, and the roles and responsibilities of counselors as change agents and advocates in responding to the diverse needs of students in all schools. This work demands the ability to reflect and respond in written and oral form.
