

We move that a process for determining an interim dean for the School of Education be established in a timely manner, that includes significant School of Education faculty input and articulates a procedural timeline. (Passed by CEP without a quorum on November 13, 2014.)