Leaders of this sort routinely contend with and challenge barriers to educational opportunity relating to poverty, gender, (dis)ability, race, ethnicity, and home language, among others. This work demands the ability to reflect and respond in written and oral form.

So that we can assess interest and commitment to engaging with our faculty and fellow students in these efforts, we ask all candidates provide a Statement of Purpose for entering the IU School of Education Educational Leadership program. This statement should clearly introduce you, indicate your educational and professional goals and relate these to your educational, work and life experiences.

Along with addressing the prompt above, be sure to include answers to the following questions in your statement:

- Are you a licensed counselor, teacher or media specialist in Indiana?
- How many years of experience do you have in your licensure area?
- What are your personal, academic, and career goals?
